

Credence CEO Receives Washington Business Journal 2010 Minority Business Leader Award

Sid Chowdhary has been named a 2010 Minority Business Leader by the Washington Business Journal

Contact: Credence Public Relations, (202) 494-9594

Washington, DC (PRWEB) April 30, 2010 – Credence Management Solutions President and CEO Sid Chowdhary has been named a 2010 Minority Business Leader by the Washington Business Journal.

Cited as one of the Washington area’s top minority business leaders who exhibited outstanding performance, Chowdhary will be profiled in the April 30, 2010, edition of the Washington Business Journal and honored at an awards program on April 30, 2010, at the Four Seasons Hotel in Washington.

Chowdhary is an entrepreneur and business leader in the Greater Washington Area. Sid has a successful record of growing multiple government contracting companies, along with extensive experience in working with all levels of government. He has been recognized with the “Government IT Rising Star Award” and been cited for “Outstanding IT Achievement in Government.” He also holds several leadership positions within various professional organizations.

In the last two years, Credence Management Solutions has experienced impressive revenue growth. “I’m honored to be nominated and humbled to receive this award,” Chowdhary said. “Credence was started with the vision of creating an organization that attracts and develops leaders, and one that provides an entrepreneurial platform for others to succeed with their dreams.”

Credence Management Solutions is a fast-growing HUB-Zone and 8(A) company, based in the District of Columbia. Credence is based on three values: Trust, Partnership, and Success. Credence provides management and technology consulting, strategy, business transformation, and advisory services to government agencies.

For more information, visit: www.credence-llc.com. To view the article in the Washington Business Journal, visit <http://washington.bizjournals.com/washington/stories/2010/05/03/focus8.html>.